

DR. DAN EGELER—3 Year Term

CSCS BOARD CANDIDATES FOR 2018-2019

Dan Egeler grew up on an isolated island in Lake Victoria, Tanzania as his father was an island evangelist who worked with the tribes on the 40 or more islands that existed within Lake Victoria. He received a Bachelor's degree from The King's College (NY), a Master's Degree from Washington State University (WA), and a Doctorate in Administration and Instructional Leadership from the University of Alabama (AL). Dan served for thirteen years as a teacher, soccer coach, H.S. principal, and Director of the Alliance Academy in Quito, Ecuador. He returned to the U.S. in July 1999 and has worked with the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) in Colorado Springs, CO in a variety of roles in the Global division and assumed the role of President from 2013-2018. He currently serves as the Vice President of CCSC Outreach in the Strategic Educational Alliances Department at Grand Canyon University. Dan is the author of Mentoring Millennials: Shaping the Next Generation published by NavPress. Dan and his wife Kathy have four children: Andrew, Danielle, Matthew, and Bethany who all graduated from CSCS.

STEVE EVERSON—1 Year Term

Since 1982, Steven L. Everson has served as Vice-President, Secretary/ Treasurer for The Schuck Corporation. Steve graduated from West Virginia University with a Mathematics degree, Magna Cum Laude and election to Phi Beta Kappa, and served as a computer systems operations officer for NORAD while in the Air Force. After four years of Air Force duty, Steve graduated from Northwestern University School of Law. He is a licensed attorney and an inactive CPA. Steve's volunteer experience includes Special Olympics, teaching Junior Achievement classes and coaching youth sports teams for the YMCA, Colorado Springs Parks and Recreation and Colorado Springs Christian Schools. Steve is married to Donna, and they have one son, Michael, who graduated from CSCS.

DAVID MICHAUX—3 Year Term

David Michaux was born in Dallas, Texas and came to know Christ when he was 12 years old after seeing the change in his father's life following his conversion. Dave is known around CSCS as the "school historian" as he and his wife Lynn, have been at CSCS since the second year in existence. They have two grown children and 5 grandchildren. Dave retired in May after ministering for 45 years. He will continue to volunteer at CSCS as the Chaplain Emeritus. Dave was hired initially as a Bible Teacher for the High School and then was asked to be Pastoral Counselor (2 years), Dean of Students (3 years), High School Principal (3 years) and finally, School Chaplain for the last 15 years while also serving as Bible Department Head and Chapel coordinator. Dave has had an extensive Bible Camp ministry in the summers. It has been his privilege to speak to many different groups in addition to his church ministry. He has ministered the Word in Mexico, Canada, Jamaica, Ireland, Kazakhstan as well as in many churches around the States. His children both graduated from CSCS and his two grandchildren also attend CSCS. One of his favorite verses is from 3 John 1:4, "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth."

DR. JOSEPH SANDERS—3 Year Term

Dr. Joseph Sanders is a retired Air Force Colonel, and served as the first Senate-confirmed Permanent Professor and Director, Center for Character & Leadership Development, United States Air Force Academy. He is the Founder of Touchstone Leadership Academy, an organization committed to creating transformative possibilities for current and future leaders. He also served as an adjunct professor at the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs, and as Director for Leadership Development at All American Leadership. He is currently the CEO for Colorado Uplift, creating a new generation of urban leaders through long-term, life-changing relationships.